WOMAN JAILED AS BIGAMIST IS GIVEN 30-DAY TERM BY COURT

Mrs. Elsie Holt Graham Perry
Pleads Guilty to Statutory Charge.

DROP BIGAMY COUNT

Former East Liverpool Woman Sentenced in Steubenville, Tuesday.

Pleading guilty to an indictment charging adultery, Mrs. Elsie Holt Graham Perry, former East Liverpool woman, was sentenced to 30 days in the Jefferson county jail by Common Pleas Judge Carl Smith at Steubenville Tuesday.

Mrs. Perry, who admitted having had seven husbands in her varied matrimonial career, was arrested at Hammond, Ind., several weeks ago upon information filed in the court of Justice Henry Lawler at Steubenville by her latest husband, Jessa Perry, of Port Pleasant, W. Va., charging her with bigamy.

The woman was returned to Steubenville and indicted by the Jefferson county grand jury on a bigamy count. This indictment was later modified to a statutory charge. Pending a hearing, the woman had been confined in the Jefferson county jail.

Mrs. Perry, alias Adella May Holt, has enjoyed more than her share of matrimonial happiness or rather unhappiness. She married Charles Graham of this city early this spring in the office of Justice of the Peace J. H. Burgess. Less than five months later, without going to the bother of securing a divorce, the woman married Perry, at that time employed in an Empire stone quarry, before Squire Lawler at Steubenville.

The couple, complimented in the office of Squire Lawler on their handsome appearance, went to Perry's home in Point Pleasant, W. Va. Their married life proved brief, however, the woman departing suddenly with all of Perry's life savings and a section of his wardrobe. It is alleged, Perry came to Lisbon and discovered in the court records his wife's marriage to Charles Graham. He then went to Steubenville and swore out a charge of bigamy against her in the same court in which they were married but a short time previous.

MAY THROW $75,000 WORTH OF PORK ON MARKET AT COLUMBUS

Suit, Unique In History, Instituted
In Effort to Reduce Cost of Living--Franklin County Prosecutor
Plans to Sell Food Direct to Consumer.

Columbus, Aug. 6.—An attempt to seize stored foodstuffs and sell it to the consumer at reduced prices was made here today by Prosecuting Attorney Schlesinger.

A suit, unique in legal history, was filed by Schlesinger in the common pleas court asking that the Columbus Packing company and the Fairmount Creamery company be prevented from touching 151,651 pounds of pork. It is claimed this pork has been held in the Fairmount storage plant beyond the six-months limit authorized by the Ohio cold storage act. The court is urged by Schlesinger to appoint a receiver with power to sell the pork at the price paid by the packing company when the pork was placed in storage.

"If this plan is authorized by the court, we will have the receiver place the meat on sale in the state house yard immediately," declared Prosecutor Schlesinger.

Schlesinger claimed the two companies combined for the purpose of creating, and have created and carried out, certain restrictions in restraint of trade or commerce. He charged that the combination is unlawful. Schlesinger valued the pork at about $75,000. This is said to be the first suit brought under the cold storage act.

Succession of Profiteering Is Shown by Federal Trade Commission's Report Of Investigation of Pockers, Tanners, Manufacturers and Retailers.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The present high price of shoes is entirely unjustified.

This is the finding of the federal trade commission, to be submitted to congress following an investigation of the activities of the packers, tanners, manufacturers and retailers during the period from 1914 to 1918, it was announced today.

The report of the commission shows a succession of profiteering all down the line. The commission found, according to the report, that:

1. The larger packers control the hide supply and have taken excessive profits and have passed increased costs to subsequent steps in manufacture and distribution.
2. The tanner has taken exceptional profits.
3. The manufacturer has taken unusual margins.
4. The prices charged by the retailers are not justifiable, each factor in the industry having added to the burden he had to bear, just before he passed it on to the next.

Other outstanding facts established by the inquiry, the report states, are as follows:

1. Between 1914 and 1917, the prices of hides, the principal factor in the cost of producing leather, greatly advanced and the differential between country hides and packer hides Continued on Page Two

Paris, Aug. 6.—The Rumanians have handed the Hungarians an ultimatum ordering the Hungarian army reduced to 15,000 men and levying demands for a vast amount of war materials, according to word reaching here today. The ultimatum gives the Hungarians until 10 o'clock tonight to reply.

The Hungarians are ordered to turn over 50 per cent of their railway equipment; all of the army materials including the equipment taken from Field Marshal von Mackensen's German army; hundreds of automobiles and motor trucks; half of Hungary's river craft and scores of other articles, including food, cattle and horses.

Fifteen Hungarian civilians were shot down in the streets of Budapest by Rumanian soldiers yesterday, according to advices reaching peace conference circles.

The revictualizing work of Herbert Hoover in Hungary has been seriously menaced by the cutting of the Budapest railway by the Rumanians. Col. W. B. Causey, representative of Mr. Hoover at Budapest, reports that the city is facing starvation.

The peace conference has instructed the inter-allied generals en route to Budapest to take over the command of the Rumanian army that entered the suburbs. However, the Rumanians are understood to consider themselves not bound by the conference and it is regarded as doubtful if they will obey the mandate.

Trotter, late of Salem township, for $610 damages and compensation. Wiggles claims that he purchased two brood sows from the Trotter estate for $50 and that he took the animals to his farm and quartered them near his other hogs; that the two brood sows died of hog cholera and infected his other herd. Nine of his other hogs died and it cost him $100 to stamp out the infection. He figures that his total loss was $610 for which sum he asks judgment.

SCHOOLS SEEK SPECIAL LEVY

Three school districts in Columbiana county will vote on August 12 under the so-called general assembly relief bill upon the question of a special levy for school purposes. Salem will ask a levy of 1.5 mills, East Palestine 2 mills, and Madison fractional district two mills.

The Washingtonville school board had asked for an election under the bill upon the question of a special levy for school purposes. It is said that the town would gladly surrender its incorporation, but the townships will not assume the indebtedness. The school districts in the other cities and towns in the county will issue bonds to clean up the present indebtedness so as to be able to continue the schools during the coming year. The deficits carried over from last year are large enough almost to take every cent of money that will be secured from the 1914 taxes.

Some of the cities may also have to issue bonds in order to tide over the emergency.

SALVAGING SUBMARINE MAKES LIFE OF OCEAN DIVER EASY

First salvaging submarine and the mother ship. Tube encloses stairway to submarine.

Another instance where the submarine is proving its right to exist in a civilized world is in the salvaging of sunken ships. Formerly, divers worked strenuously at the bottom of the sea and as it was necessary for them to come up often the work progressed slowly. The salvaging submarine invented by Simon Lake, Chicago, all this.

It can stay submerged for many hours, making the work of the divers much easier. Photo was taken in the harbor of Bridgeport, Conn.

HIGH PRICE

Increased beyond the usual proportion, due to the more marked increase in the price of packer hides.

2. Though there was an increase in the cost of hides to the tanner, the prices of his product—leather—advanced to a point that could not be justified by the cost of producing it. This conclusion is "supported by the high rates of return on investment received by tanners."

3. The cost of manufacturing shoes increased greatly between 1914 and 1917, but, as evidenced by the high rates of return on investment, "not to an extent that warranted the prices at which manufacturers sold their products."

4. The absolute margins of profit attained by retail shoe merchants per pair of shoes grew wider as their costs of shoes increased because their rate of profit remained substantially without change.

5. As a result the public had to pay prices for shoes that could not be justified not only because retail shoe dealers took too much profit, but because the dealer had to pass on to the consumer the excessive profits received by butchers for hides and also the excess profits of tanners and shoe manufacturers.

The report is accompanied by three recommendations for "relief from the intolerable prices paid by consumers for shoes."

WILSON TO ADDRESS

cost." Advocates of this plan declared that worked out to a complete conclusion it would prove an absolute check on profiteering as it would furnish the public with prices at which they should buy and they could be determined to insist on merchants meeting the government figures.

Administration officials said this afternoon that as the result of governmental activities there already had been a noticeable drop in the prices of many commodities. Other reductions are certain in the immediate future, they declared. But the reductions to date were characterized as a mere drop in the bucket and it was officially declared that they would not influence the president in his plans to secure the permanent reduction of prices through essential legislation.

MILK THIEVES BUSY IN CITY

Filled Bottles and Cash Stolen, Report Dairy-men.

Milk thieves are again active in East Liverpool.

Reports were made Wednesday of the disappearance of filled milk bottles and even the cash left in the empty bottles. Loss in pints and quarts of milk stolen from in front of homes of customers would reach between ten and fifteen gallons in a month, Earl Tatgenhorst of Tatgenhorst Brothers' company, estimated.

Other dairymen and milk distributors using bottles report many complaints of stolen milk. Early deliveries of milk left at the homes of consumers before daybreak are taken by thieves, particularly boys. Empty bottles containing money to pay for the milk are robbed of their contents, while bottles with tickets in them are unremoved until they are replaced with filled bottles.

The matter has been reported to police headquarters and steps will be taken to punish the offenders.

FOOD PROBE TO BE LAUNCHED

Investigation of possible sources of food profiteering in Wellsville is planned by Prosecuting Attorney Walter Beck and Deputy Prosecutor Jesse Hanley who launched the intensive countywide food probe Tuesday at East Liverpool.

Inspection of wholesale grocer and produce concerns, cold storage plants and other places of business dealing largely in foodstuffs will be the first step in the plans of the county authorities, it was stated.

County Prosecutor Beck is determined to leave no stone unturned to discover and prosecute any persons in Columbiana county responsible for the prevailing food prices. The date for the investigation in Wellsville has not been definitely set, it was stated Wednesday.

URGES SALARY FOR M'ILLVAIN

Appeal for the continuation of the salary of Patrolman Clyde McIlvain who is confined in the East Liverpool hospital with a shattered leg inflicted by a Wellsville Italian several months ago, was made to city council Tuesday night by Attorney W. A. O'Grady. The matter was referred to Solicitor Chas. Boyd.

Attorney O'Grady in his address before council cited the faithful services of Patrolman McIlvain and urged that city council reconsider its action in cutting off his salary. Mayor Imrie responded by declaring that a ruling by Solicitor Boyd had caused the discontinuance of the patrolman's pay and the addition of another officer on the force to take McIlvain's place. McIlvain was shot through the leg by an Italian while patrolling his beat and has been an inmate at the hospital for several months.

Service Director C. C. Ewing was instructed Tuesday night to prepare an estimate on the cost of improving Chester avenue from Fifteenth to Seventeenth street.

The traction situation, scheduled for discussion Tuesday night, did not come up.

NAVY OFFERS MEN CHANCE TO LEARN TRADE

Many Interesting Courses Of Study in The Trade Schools.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Pay, Raised During The World War, is Maintained By Congress.

That East Liverpool young men desiring to acquire some remunerative trade should enlist in the navy and take advantage of the courses offered in the navy trade schools, was the declaration made Monday by W. C. Storey, one of the officers in charge of the navy recruiting station, Little building.

Trade schools are maintained in the service for the instruction of yeomen, cooks, bakers, commissary stewards, electricians, painters, carpenters, ship fitters, machinists' mates, blacksmiths, coppersmiths and other trades, Chief Boatswain's Mate Storey said.

Deserving men showing aptitude for a special line of work are encouraged to apply for entry into the particular school teaching that work. Every opportunity is given for a man to advance to higher ranks, if he exhibits a willingness to apply himself to the duties entrusted to him.

Pay in the navy, raised during the period of the war, has been maintained at that standard and ranges from $32.60 for apprentice seamen to $110 for chief petty officers with board, lodging and free clothing outfit.

In addition to the seamen branch of the service which embraces seamen, quartermasters, turret captains, gunners' mates, boatswain mates and master-at-arms the following trades are obtainable in the navy:

Machinists' mates, electricians, ship fitters, boiler-makers, coppersmiths, blacksmiths, plumbers, fitters, shipwrights, sailmakers, mates, water tenders, others, firemen, painters, printers, yeomen, musicians, buglers, cooks and bakers.

At The Theatres

"THE BETTER WIFE" AT AMERICAN THEATRE

The cast for Clara Kimball Young's forthcoming Select Picture, "The Better Wife," which comes to the American theatre Thursday, is one of the most remarkable that has been assembled in all of Miss Young's productions. The leading man in "The Better Wife" will be Nigel Barrie, who is celebrating his discharge from the Royal Flying Corps by playing the role of Sir Richard Beverly.

Kathryn Williams, another well known motion picture actress, is cast for an important part in this production, while Lillian Walker, a star of both stage and screen, is seen as Helen Kingston, an English girl. Irving Cummings has an important part and one which fits his type to perfection. He is seen as the Comte de Cheverly, a gay French count who cuts a wide swath among the ladies. Little Ben Alexander, who has come to be known as the sweetest child actor on the screen, is also included, while the remainder of the company includes Barbara Tennant and Edward Kimball.

IS VICTIM OF BOMB ATTACK

Oscar Lawler.

A gasoline bomb Sunday destroyed the Los Angeles home of Oscar Lawler, former assistant U. S. attorney general and former federal district attorney, badly burning both Mr. and Mrs. Lawler. Revenge on the part of a man sent to the penitentiary in connection with dynamiting outrages in the middle west several years ago is believed by police to form the motive for the crime.

LAST SHOWING OF "AUCTION OF SOULS"

The story of Aurora Mardiganian, a young Armenian girl of great beauty, is told as a vivid incident before the bloody background of horrors which has been the fate of the Armenian people, in "Auction of Souls," to be seen at the Ceramic theatre for the last time Wednesday. She is taken from her own home, after years of efforts to force her to marry a Turk, and driven into the desert with the thousands who were evicted from Armenia in 1915.

Her parents killed, her brothers and sisters brutally treated by the Turks, and her friends on every side falling from fatigue, thirst, hunger and the whip of the Mohammedan she marches on into the burning sands, befriended only by a splendid English girl, Miss Graham, and protected when he is able, by an Armenian shepherd, who loves her.

She escapes and is recaptured repeatedly, spending almost two years of fearful suffering, to be rescued only after having been repeatedly bartered and sold as a slave, and kept for a time in a harem, or in the iniquitous rendezvous of her lustful masters, to come to America and tell her story.

"WHAT EVERY WOMAN WANTS," AT DIAMOND

"What Every Woman Wants" is answered by the photo-drama of that title produced by Jesse D. Hampton, and released through Exhibitors Mutual, starring lovely Grace Darmond, appearing at the Diamond Wednesday and Thursday.

Some blasé bachelors and chronic married men claim that no woman knows what she does want; that when she gets what she wants she doesn't want it any more.

These same hypochondriacs blatantly assert that all a woman wants, besides the earth, sun, moon, stars, milky way, and all contained therein, is her own way, and then when she gets mad at herself because she has nobody to argue the question with.

It is easily understood by intelligent men that if a woman has a nice home, plenty of beautiful clothes, the right to draw an libitum on her husband's bank account, the inalienable privilege of shaking down his trousers every night, to entertain "mother" for indefinite periods, a couple of automobiles, a few diamonds, cats and canaries, suffrage and prohibition, cold cream on the face every night, cold bath on Tuesdays and Thursdays all a hot reception for hubby on his morning after, she is perfectly satisfied if only hubby will rear up on his hind legs and raise "Nod" every once in a while, so as to keep things interesting.

At least, some are satisfied with these little items. "What Every Woman Wants" is resolved in a very satisfactory way by the author, William Parker, and Grace Darmond, the beautiful star, is ocular proof of what every man would like to have.

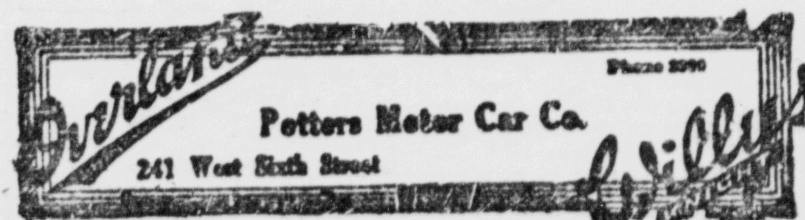

"JOHANNA ENLISTS" COMES TO CERAMIC

Mary Pickford returns to the Ceramic again this week, this time in "Johanna Enlists." The story of the play follows:

Johanna Renssaler, uncouth and freckled, has been reared on a farm amid surroundings not conducive to the development of all of the good that is in her. She has a romantic soul, but her parents treat her exuberance with coldness. She never has had a love affair except with a brakeman at a distance, so that when a regiment of soldiers camps near the Renssaler farm, accompanied by many handsome officers, Johanna's prayer for a "beau" seemingly has been answered. Everybody, from the commanding officer to the humblest trooper, falls in love with her. She decides upon a milk bath to enhance her beauty, and this results in startling developments. A private who loves her enters the bath room and an officer, believing the soldier has some ulterior motive, follows him. The officer is insulted and the offending soldier is taken to court-martial. Captain Van Renssaler, the adjutant of the regiment, takes a hand in the trial and when Johanna tells her story, which absolves the soldier of guilt and effects his release, he falls in love with her. When the regiment gets orders to move, Johanna, after exchanging vows of love with her handsome Captain, rides away on a gun carriage to become his bride in the next town.

Simple Rule for Success.

The path of success in business is invariably the path of common sense. Notwithstanding all that has been said about "lucky hits" the best kind of success in any man's life is not that which comes by accident; the only good fortune we are justified in hoping for is that which we are capable of making for ourselves. And we can only attain success by constantly thinking success.

Now is the Time

TO BUILD UP PERMANENTLY.

NATURE AT ITS BEST AS AN AID

If you who are weak, nervous and run-down from over-work, worry or any other cause would only realize that the summer months is the time to build up strength and vigor there would not be so many collapses and rushing for aid during the winter.

The plan to follow is simple: Plenty of rest and good, wholesome food along with a strength-creating, body-building tonic. Chasco-Vin with its Iron, Manganese, Hypophosphites, Nux and other strength-making ingredients, is the tonic we suggest.

If you follow this plan carefully you will notice a wonderful improvement in two week's time. But don't give up too soon.

The local agent for Chasco-Vin is Flick's Pharmacy, Fifth and Market streets. In the East End, Carnahan's Pharmacy, Hill building.

STANDARDIZED ROADS.

The Commissioner of Public Works of New Rochelle, N. Y., is urging that all roads in that corporation shall be of standardized width and pavement.

He urges also that the building of the roads and their upkeep are part naturally of the same system and should be under the same supervision.

All service pipes, water, sewer, gas, etc., he feels should be of standard measures, placed early, and well constructed so that as little tearing up of pavements as possible shall be necessary.

All these are good ideas. In some places all of them are carried out. In many localities, however, sub-divisions are developed as private enterprises. Streets in these sub-divisions often are narrow, service pipes small and pavements poorly constructed.

A local standardized road policy would save all the expense and inconvenience which results from this sketchy system.

People are beginning to understand that in road-building, at least, the best is the cheapest in the end.

The ultimate expense to tax-payers and property holders will be less under a high standard system of construction than where various unrelated methods are employed.

OUR DEAD IN FRANCE.

The French government strongly opposes the removal of American soldier dead to this country for a period of at least three years.

No resentment should be felt because of this attitude.

The disinterment and transportation of a large number of bodies might easily be the source of a serious epidemic of disease in France, something which that country is in no condition to face.

Transportation facilities are hopelessly insufficient for the needs of the living; their further congestion would work great hardship.

The French people have foregone having the bodies of their own dead returned because it is felt that the saddening effect upon the people would be unbearable. They are a nation in deepest mourning as it is.

Great Britain will not remove her dead.

American "Fields of Honor" already are being established in France. To these bodies of our soldiers are being taken, and the graves will be tended and recorded in every instance with the utmost care.

The personal sacrifice may be great; but if the greater good demands that, for a time at least, no bodies be brought back to America, undoubtedly the sacrifice will be made with the same uncompromising heroism which in so many instances has made this war a notable one.

COURT-MARTIAL REFORM.

One new article of war and changes in thirty others have been recommended by the special board which has been investigating the court-martial system of the army. The report of the board soon will be transmitted in full to the Congress for action. Secretary Baker said, in speaking of the matter:

"It may be said that the board, upon the whole, finds no radical defects in the system, and it attributes the greater part of the just criticism not to inherent fault in the system itself, but rather to the inexperienced personnel called upon to administer it at a time of stress, when the great thing was to get 4,000,000 men quickly in shape for the fighting line."

Undoubtedly most of the mistakes made in the conduct of the war arose from this same source, but it will be a matter of popular feeling that the new court-martial proceedings shall be so definitely outlined as to make a similar misinterpretation and injustice unlikely to occur again, whatever the conditions.

It is true, of course, that except in isolated cases, no soldier not guilty of some misconduct suffered punishment, and that the way for a soldier to avoid unpleasant court-martial proceedings is to behave himself.

Nevertheless, punishment for cruelty or misapplication of the army rules should be as drastic as for military offenses on the part of the soldier. It would have a healthy tendency to put a check upon any "inexperienced personnel" in future.

ANOINTING WARSHIPS.

A notable precedent has been set in the naming of the ship Tulsa at Hog Island. Instead of being christened with champagne or with pure water, the vessel's bow was anointed with a bottle of crude Oklahoma petroleum.

It may not have been very poetical. There may even have been a notable lack of fragrance and beauty in that thick, odorous oil trickling down the freighter's iron side. But it was a famous victory, none the less, richly suggestive in possibilities.

A metropolitan paper which finds in any new "dry" manifestation a subject for sarcasm proposes that hereafter ships bearing Vermont names shall be christened with cans of maple syrup, Mississippi ships with New Orleans molasses and North Carolina ships with pine tar.

But why not? Even such materials may be endowed with a special fitness in time, when long usage has sanctioned them. Surely ships were not always and everywhere christened with champagne. New times, new customs. There must be innovations, or the world would grow stale. And why not use, in such matters, some product having a distinct and demonstrable relation to the state or city that is honored in the naming of the vessel?

Grape juice—unfermented, of course—might be used for California; cider for New York state; buttermilk for Illinois; loganberry juice for Oregon; clam juice, perhaps, for Massachusetts; and so on down the list, with gasoline for West Virginia, mineral water for Colorado and orange juice for Florida.

Even the rich have their troubles. John D. Rockefeller can remember when his firm got 50 cents a gallon for kerosene, and it only cost him six cents to get shaved. Now he says it costs him 50 cents to get shaved, and kerosene is only 15 cents a gallon.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McINTYRE.

New York, August 6.—Now and then there is a bloody flare up in the old haunts of the gangsters in Manhattan, but the police believe that the gangster is a highly despised thing of the past. The gangsters of the type that ruled the old Bowery and Chinatown and kept alive the dives there used every means of getting a livelihood that could be conjured up by a perverted brain. The policeman's club and long prison sentences ended gangdom.

Big Jack Zelig, a devil with the women, was pistolled on a Fourteenth street street car one Saturday night. But Em Up Jack McManus, Spanish Louie and Crazy Butch went to their deaths primarily through women. Owny Madden, the most recent gang leader, is doing a stretch for manslaughter.

Monk Eastman, once a gang leader, is now a respectable citizen who won his way back on account of his war record. He works at night in a garage. Paul Kelley is now Paul Vaccarello and is heading the Longshoremen's union. Harry the Yst has dropped out of sight. There seems to be no new leaders to take their places.

Now and then some bravado tries to become a leader, but a night stick rat-a-tat-tat on his head ends his dream of leadership. The old gangster was a coward. When he killed it was from the shadow of a dark doorway. He plundered those who could not complain to the police on account of criminal records. The gangster is almost invariably a drug user. Only with cocaine, heroin or some other drug does his physical fears leave him.

The old gangster would do any sort of criminal job for hire. Murder was cheap and maiming was cheaper. It used to be possible to get a man killed for ten dollars. The police once had a price list, supposed to be in the hand writing of "Piker" Ryan, a gang leader who flourished in 1900. The list had this schedule of prices for killings and maimings:

Funching, $2; both eyes blacked, $4; nose and jaw hurt, $10; jawed out (knocked out with blackjack), $15; ear clawed off, $15; leg or arm broke, $19; shot in leg, $25; eye gouged out, $10; stab wound, $25; doing the big job, $100 up.

Down on Park Row they tell a story of a reporter who returned to his city editor from an assignment the other day a little too jovial for dry days. The city editor looked up and inquired: "Off the reservation again, eh?" "Noshir chief, nothin like that—only a few glasses of 2.75 per cent beer."

"Well you haven't got a 2.75 per cent breath. How many glasses did you have?"

"Just four chief—honest just four lil' glasses. I fixed my breath that way."

It was lunch time so the city editor called two copy readers and asking the befuddled reporter along at repaired to a grocery nearby. All ordered beer and sat down. The reporter fumbled in his pocket, pulled out a flask and filled the glass half full of rye.

"Gotta buck up that breath," he said. "Here I am best reporter in town and only a measly, teazy weeny 2.75 per cent breath." And it so moved him that briny tears rolled down his cheeks. Even the C. E. smiled.

In my opinion "The Better Ole" is the most stupid play in town. Yet it has been running a year on Broadway. The critics were far from favorable when the play opened. It is impossible to guage a play in New York. Even the astute Charles Frohman said he could do it in London, but not over here. The latest thriller which it is predicted will have a long run is Al Wood's "A Voice in the Dark." The play is acted partly in the dark and partly in pantomime. And there is only an occasional glimpse of the heroine.

"Do you think it is ever going to be possible to have real peace?"

"No. After people get tired of piano players and the disc machines somebody will invent some other kind of a music-making contrivance."

ARRESTS MAY FOLLOW PROBE

Columbus, Aug. 6.—"There is something wrong here that must be corrected."

With this statement Attorney General Price let it be known today that there are likely to be arrests soon for the violation of the law governing the time foodstuffs can be kept in cold storage. What the immediate action will be is to be announced following a conference between Price, Governor Cox and Thomas C. Gault, state dairy and food commissioner, to be held today.

The investigation thus far brings out the fact that there are 75,000,000 pounds of butter in storage as against 50,000,000 last year in the midst of the war. Price points out that butter is wholesaling at 53 1-2 cents a pound as against 43 1-2 cents a year ago.

A year ago, according to the figures in the possession of Price, there were 3,221,000 crates of eggs in storage as against 3,840,000 today.

"In my opinion this is contrary to every law of supply and demand," said Price, in giving out his figures.

ADD CHESTER PERS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson of Sixth street and Mr. F. H. Lane and family of Massillon, Ohio, have left on a six weeks' automobile trip through the west. Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo., will be visited. Drumright, Okla., is their objective.

How Nuxated Iron Helped Me To Whip Jess Willard And Win The World's Championship

JACK DEMPSEY
"TIGER OF THE RING"
Tells a Secret of His Training—
Recommends Nuxated Iron To Every Man and Woman Who Wants To Build Greater Strength, Energy and Power

"Nuxated Iron put added power behind my punch and helped me to accomplish what I did at Toledo."

JACK DEMPSEY

Today recognized as the physical superior to any living man—the Superman of the Age—Jack Dempsey, Heavyweight Champion of the world, explains below the part Nuxated Iron played in helping to prepare him for the supreme test of his career. In his decisive, smashing victory over the mighty Willard who had never before been knocked from his feet, Dempsey displayed a dynamic overwhelming strength and power never before known in the history of the ring. That he took Nuxated Iron as a part of his training is convincing evidence of the importance Dempsey attached to keeping his blood rich in strength-giving iron, and the high regard in which he holds Nuxated Iron as a master-strength and blood builder.

In a statement made at his training quarters in Toledo, the scene of the big battle, Jack Dempsey said: "After commencing the use of Nuxated Iron during my training for the big fight with Jess Willard, I soon noticed that I could stand harder strains with less fatigue than before, and I realized that I had found a tonic and blood builder which played an important part in getting me into fine condition. Formerly I had relied solely upon strength-building foods and outdoor exercise to keep my blood rich in red corpuscles, but with the World's Championship at stake, I felt that I should leave nothing undone that might help me to win. I was advised of the great value of Nuxated Iron for building up the blood, strengthening the nerves and aiding in keeping the body fit, and I am firmly convinced that its use has helped to wonderfully increase my stamina and endurance. Nuxated Iron put added power behind my punch and helped me to accomplish what I did at Toledo. From the results in my own case where the possession of super abundance is essential, I feel that I am in a position to strongly recommend Nuxated Iron to every man and woman who wants to build greater strength, energy and power."

In connection with the foregoing statement made by Jack Dempsey, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westerner County Hospital, said: "The methods of training adopted by Willard and Dempsey may have had a great deal to do with the outcome of this fight."

According to reports Dempsey placed himself unreservedly in the hands of expert trainers and competent physicians and heeded their advice. In my opinion whoever made the suggestion that Nuxated Iron should play a part in getting Dempsey into condition is to be commended for his foresight. No man without plenty of rich, red blood filled with health-giving and strength building iron could withstand the terrific onslaughts of a giant like Willard. It should occur to every thinking person that if a man as physically fit as Dempsey should consider it advisable to take Nuxated Iron, how much more important it is for the average man or woman to see that there is no lack of iron in the blood. There is today a surprising number of persons who suffer from iron deficiency. Many a capable man or woman falls just short of winning because they don't back up their mentality with the physical strength and energy which comes from having plenty of iron in the blood. Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. To help make strong, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Dr. John J. Van Horne, formerly Medical Inspector and Clinical Physician on the Board of Health of the City of New York, says: "Strength and vitality of body and

William Harrison ("Jack") Dempsey—

Although like an untamed tiger in the ring, the intensely human side of the new World's Champion is clearly shown by a remark he is quoted as making just before the big fight, in which he said: "I have telegraphed my Mother that I will win the championship and I am not going to disappoint her. I'm going to win that title if for no other reason than because I've promised her I would."

Dempsey describes here the part Nuxated Iron played in helping him to keep his promise to win the title.

mind are derived from the blood and the blood in turn derives it from the food we eat and the oxygen contained in the air we breathe. But unless the blood is rich in iron to increase the oxygen power, it cannot develop living tissue muscle and brain or keep active the vital forces. Strong, healthy men and women with plenty of iron in their blood are the ones who go through life with a smile, self-reliant and fearless and their dynamic power and energy make them virtually masters of their own destinies. It is surprising how many people who do not get along in life are really suffering from iron deficiency and do not know it. To supply this lack of iron and help build stronger, healthier men and women, better able to meet the problems of everyday life, I believe that physicians should, at every opportunity, prescribe the organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science.

Manufactured by Nuxated Iron which has been used by Jack Dempsey and which is prescribed and recommended above by a physician is a most valuable tonic which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the other iron tonic products, it is easily assimilated, and does not irritate the stomach, make them sick, or cause the stomach to growl. The manufacturers guarantee successful and rapidly satisfactory results to every purchaser who will read the directions. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

Sold by Jesse D. Holloway, Hodson Drug Co. and all other druggists.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

Everybody knows Dorothy Gish, the petite little miss who did such good work in Griffith's pictures. She is twenty-one years old and admits it. Dayton, Ohio, is the town which claims her and Biograph is the film company which started her on her career. But who knows the dark-haired miss in the photograph? Does anybody recognize the turned-up nose and cupid mouth?

Well, to relieve the suspension we'll tell you. It's just a picture of the very same light-haired, blue-eyed Dorothy that you all know only she is appearing as a brunette. Dorothy has decided that she likes herself best as a brunette and so the hair you see in the picture is none other than the famous black wig which this young woman has adopted and wears to the exclusion of her blond curls. It is said she loves her wig with a pathetic devotion.

Maybe it's all right, Dorothy, especially in winter, but how do you stand it in hot weather?

Pearl on Vacation.

"When you take a vacation make it a real one," is the advice of Pearl White, who recently signed a contract with the Fox company. She is at her beautiful summer home at Bayside, Long Island, for a rest before beginning "Tiger Club" which will be her first Fox production.

"Disconnect the telephone and declare the house under quarantine," is Miss White's motto. She is very fond of the seashore, and with bathing and clams—which by the way has become a real hobby with her—she is spending a very happy restful vacation.

Rogers Is Night Worker

The genial Will Rogers and his company have been missed around the Goldwyn studio of late for the reason that they have been working on location at night, securing night-effect scenes for Rogers' first production, "Almost a Husband," which is being directed by Clarence Badger.

Ex-Husband Manages Ruth.

Leon Kent, it seems, had to divorce Ruth Roland to manage her. At least so it would appear, for they were divorced two months ago and now Kent has been appointed Miss Roland's business manager.

"The independence of the Central American republics has become a mere fiction. Mexico is openly threatened with invasion and the magnificent United States army may soon establish a regime there agreeable to New York and Chicago financiers. 'Undoubtedly American imperialism is less odious than the German variety. It isn't carried out with sabres and machine guns. It acts in the name of the celebrated Monroe doctrine. It is disguised as friendly protection, yet the Monroe doctrine is like certain women's furs: They are worn according to season. Sometimes the fur is on the inside, sometimes on the outside.'"

"While the European powers are being warned off the Yankees are outstretching their claws pretty near everywhere on their continent. Are we not entitled to ask how this policy harmonizes with President Wilson's generous code?"

SWISS CHARGE AGAINST U. S.

Paris, August 6.—The charge that the United States is guilty of imperialism under the guise of the Monroe doctrine, is printed by the Lausanne Gazette, one of the leading Swiss newspapers.

"The logical consequences of American participation in the league of nations should be the return of liberty to Nicaragua, Santo Domingo and Haiti and the restitution of Colon to Panama," said the newspaper.

"Costa Rica declared war against Germany, but Washington excluded her from the peace conference and deprived her of membership in the league."

NO VIOLATIONS FOUND IN CITY

With the exception of one instance of short weight in bacon caused by an error in billing at the factory, no violations of any character that might tend to maintain or increase the high cost of living was discovered by Prosecutor Walter Beck and Deputy Prosecutor Jesse Haney in their investigation of cold storage concerns, wholesale dealers in foodstuffs and others in East Liverpool Tuesday.

One butcher, it was learned, had been selling wrapped sections of bacon at the weight marked on the billing from the Wilson and company's Chicago plant which was found to be more than the actual weight of the bacon. According to the selling price of the bacon, the consumer is obliged to pay 23 cents for the paper wrapping on every slab of bacon.

The Armour and company's plant here was inspected in the morning and the J. E. Anderson, Tatgenhorst Brothers, H. E. Riggs, Palmisano, Gerace and Crawford and Fleming concerns in the afternoon.

H. B. Barth, former county food administrator, accompanied the county officials on their tour of inspection in this city.

Garbage Wagon Upset.

The garbage furnace itself had nothing on John street Tuesday morning when a team of horses attached to one of Peter Milliron's garbage wagons ran off, upsetting the wagon and distributing its contents along the thoroughfare.

BECK TO PROBE BOYCOTT CLAIM

A report that merchants had threatened to boycott farmers and gardeners if they sold any of their produce direct to the consumer will be investigated by Prosecuting Attorney Walter Beck and Deputy Prosecutor Jesse Haney when they extend their countywide probe into food prices to this city.

Several Wellsville people, it is said, had requested farmers to sell their vegetables, butter, eggs and other farm products from house-to-house instead of going directly to the grocery stores and other places of business with it. It is pointed out that they could get slightly better prices from the consumer and still sell the produce at a price far below that charged by the merchant.

Farmers have refused to heed this suggestion. Prosecutor Beck has been notified, stating that the grocers had threatened to refuse to buy any of their product if they sold to the housewives.

To Form Foot Ball Team.

Organization of a foot ball team to be composed of world war veterans and members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was decided upon at a meeting held Tuesday night in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. Another meeting will be held Friday night at the hall to complete the organization of the team.

HEADACHES ALL GONE SAYS MRS. TAYLOR, BELPRE

Has Been Nearly Life-Long — Three Bottles Nerv-Worth Did the Work

This is a wonderful statement. Think of a chronic headache nearly fifty years old being banished by just $3.00 worth of medicine! Absolutely harmless medicine, too, for Nerv-Worth does not contain a particle of opiates, narcotics, coal-tar products or habit-forming drugs and that cannot be said of all headache medicine. Now this is what Mrs. Taylor stated in writing to her Parkersburg druggist some time ago:

"I have been troubled with headache and nervousness and was generally run down. I have taken three bottles of Nerv-Worth and my headaches are all gone. I am fifty-two years old and have been troubled with headaches all my life. I can recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone that has headaches and nervousness and for a general run-down system."

FOUR DIE IN STORM IN OHIO

Cleveland, Aug. 6.—Rains which in same sections had been almost continuous for 24 hours culminated late yesterday in a downpour which became almost a cloudburst and resulted in damage throughout northern Ohio which may aggregate millions and caused the loss of at least four lives. Heavy electrical disturbances accompanied the rain.

City and interurban traffic throughout northern Ohio was interrupted. In Cleveland the street car tieup was not extended but several of the interurban lines were still seriously handicapped today. Telephone and telegraph lines suffered and several important power lines were put out of commission.

It is feared, however, that the crop damage will prove heaviest. On account of crippled communication, reports are coming in slowly from the country districts, it is known that much corn acreage was destroyed, the corn being beaten into the mud by the terrific downpour. Fruit orchards likewise suffered great damage and reports from the grape belt stated that some vineyards were practically wiped out while others were badly damaged.

The heaviest death toll was reported from Youngstown where lightning killed two instantly and a third person was electrocuted. The fourth dead occurred at Bellevue where Elijah Younger, 13, drowned in a pool of rain water.

Tiffin suffered heavy damage, the waters of Rock Creek inundating a portion of the city and driving 200 families from their homes. The waters were reported subsiding today although still high. City authorities and the Red Cross provided shelter last night for the homeless.

Wayne and Ashtand counties reported heavy damage. Numerous fires were caused by lightning, streams overflowed their banks and crops were ruined.

According to weather observer E. H. Emery, the storm was the heaviest in northern Ohio since September 2, 1901. In Cleveland a rainfall of 4.06 inches was recorded in 24 hours, that of 1901 being 4.97 inches.

MAY ALLISON IN FILM AT STRAND

"Almost Married," from the pen of E. V. Durling, is the latest comedy drama in which the clever Metro star,

BITES--STINGS
Wash the affected surface with household ammonia or warm salt water; then apply—

VICK'S VAPORUB
"YOUR BODYGUARD"—30¢, 60¢, $1.20

May Allison, will be seen. This play, which will be shown at the Strand theater Wednesday, is filled with breezy and unexpected situations.

The young star enacts the role of a girl of the Swiss Alps who meets the son of a millionaire. A romance ensues, which, however, is rudely shattered. The rare beauty of her voice and face attracts the attention of a musical director and he transplants her from her mountain home to the heart of New York, where she shines in the front ranks of a popular review.

Here she meets the boy's father and the situations which result are amazing and amusing and cause untold complications. It is a play which will win popular favor.

The man who asks for the benefit of the doubt usually needs it.

CAMPING CLUB AT MACKINAC

The vanguard of the Silver Leaf Camping club, one of the pioneer outing clubs of East Liverpool, left Tuesday afternoon for Les Cheneaux Island, Mackinac. Other members of the club will join the club within a week.

Samuel Bell, Roy Paisley, Joseph McKenna and Nathan Roush composed the first part leaving Tuesday with the camp outfit. The club carries complete camping equipment and will stay on the island for a month.

This will be the first trip of the club to Les Cheneaux island. The site chosen for this season's outing is said to be an ideal one with splendid fishing, bathing and boating facilities. The club usually revisits each site once and then seeks another for the next season.

Owing to the absence of many of its members in the army, the club postponed its camping trip last season. The club camped on the shores of Devil Lake in the heart of Michigan's famous lake country two years ago.

SHIMMY SHOOK BEFORE COURT TO PROVE MORALITY

Salem, Mass.—Is it immoral to "shake the shimmy?" Are the devotees of the newest of the new jazz dances guilty of an immoral dance when they perform it.

The Watch and Ward society says "Yes" to both questions. Joseph Chouinard, proprietor of a dance hall at Beverly, says "No."

Judge Sears, of Salem, acted as a court of last resort. The "shimmy" was danced before him in court. The judge will decide whether the "shimmy" is to go down in terpsichorean history with the fox trot, the one step and other perfectly proper "jazzes," or whether it is to be taboo in good society.

Chouinard was arrested at Beverly for conducting an "improper dance hall."

WITH EACH PAYMENT OF LEGACY HE BUYS BONDS

Chicago — The other morning Albert Stenberg bought $5,000 worth of Victory bonds. That afternoon he received a draft for $5,000, the first payment of a legacy from Sweden. He bought another $5,000 lot of bonds.

A week later he received another $5,000 draft from the estate in Sweden. Same bond salesman got the second $5,000 — Stenberg's bond holdings jumped to $15,000.

Recently another draft of $5,000 arrived—the last of the legacy. Uncle Sam got this $5,000 also. "It's like to have more of both — bonds and drafts," commented Stenberg.

STOLE BRIDE ON WEDDING NIGHT; HUSBY IS MAD.

Bridgewater, Mass.—Charles Brownell of this town was the victim of an "unpractical" joke, in his opinion, when friends of the young man kidnaped his bride following the ceremony, took her to the home of one of the young women conspirators, and held her a prisoner until the following morning.

Shortly after the wedding cake had been cut an auto drew up in front of the door and the apparatus of the bride was the signal for action by the kidnapers. She was hurried into the machine, which sped away at full speed. Not until the next morning was she returned to the disgruntled husband, who admits he failed to see the joke.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Reaching the foot for the "rail" and not finding it is the possible sensation of femininity as it stands before the bar in the city's leading hostelry sipping cool drinks. Here, when the floodgates of the "flowing bowl" were open, man exercised his privilege of the "rail." Now all is changed. The "rail" has been removed, even "2.75 per cent" has been dispensed with. Only soft drinks are served, so now, before this palatial bar, the gentle sex can without a blush ask or answer the question "What'll you have?"

CHAMPION EGG EATER

IS NOW IN DISPUTE

Dallas, Tex.—S. G. Scott, of this city, is hurt over the report that a Pennsylvania man claims to be the champion egg eater of the world just because he got on the outside of forty-eight eggs in twenty-four hours. Scott is a veteran of the civil war and declares that on a wager in his young days he ate forty-seven eggs at one sitting and asked to eat another to make it four dozen scornfully replied that he didn't want to make a hog of himself. "The doctors who say there is as much nourishment in an egg as a pound of beef steak give me a good sized pain," declares Scott. "Just suppose I had eaten forty-seven pounds of steak at that one sitting?" Scott says his opponent devoured thirty-seven eggs during the hour's contest.

GRAFTS TOMATO VINE TO

POTATO PLANT; BOTH BEAR

Oneida, N. Y.—Yankee ingenuity and American "grafting" promises to solve the all-absorbing question of the high cost of living. It has become known here that Alton Wheeler, horticulturist and assistant teacher at the State Agricultural school at Morrisville, has been carrying on some experiments which encourage hopes for a crop of vegetables above as well as below the soil on the same vine. Wheeler has grafted a tomato vine to a potato plant which bears fruit.

NOTED FRENCH SPEAKER HAS LECTURED IN FORTY-FOUR STATES

To Lecture at Chautauqua on "The Rebuilding of France"

Lieutenant Jean A. Picard, who will speak at Chautauqua on "The Rebuilding of France," has been lecturing in the United States for two years, during which time he has spoken in forty-four states of the Union, and during the two years has the unprecedented record of delivering twenty-three hundred lectures, nearly a hundred lectures a month. These lectures were delivered before all varieties of audiences, Chambers of Commerce, Church audiences, Rotary clubs, Chautauquas, Lyceum audiences and for a considerable period of time he spoke in the big cantonnements, having appeared in every cantonnement and marine station in the United States.

Mr. Ernest R. Wilkins, Director of the Educational Bureau of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. of America, has this to say of Lieutenant Picard: "He has stimulated American patriotism, love for France, intelligent enthusiasm for the allied cause, clean living, the study of French and other excellent motives, and has honored in his service here the country whose uniform he wore at the first battle of the Marne and for two or three years thereafter."

When appearing at the Chautauqua he will not deliver a war lecture, but will deal with some of the problems that are now facing his country. Americans should understand France better, and Lieutenant Picard will help to that end.

LEAGUE SPLIT ON MAY'S ISSUE

By JACK VEIOCK.

New York, Aug. 6.—The wordy battle over the suspension of Carl Mays lost much of its color today, though the situation as it may affect the American league internally, took a more serious aspect.

Messrs. Ruppert and Huston, owners of the Yankees, are apparently greatly put out over Ban Johnson's action in jumping out of the ring between rounds.

The American league president folded his tent and disappeared in the general direction of Chicago without making answer to Colonel Huston's charges that he is a part owner of the Cleveland club.

While the new York magnates have not yet applied for an injunction against Johnson, they are expected to do so at any time and they still contend that they will put Mays into the lineup.

Hints from several quarters that rival American league clubs may refuse to play against the Yankees if they play Mays were received here with interest. Baseball men pointed out that such threats prove conclusively that the league is divided against itself. There is even talk of Ban Johnson resigning unless he can disprove the charges made by Colonel Huston.

FOOD PRICES IN PARIS CUT

Paris, August 6.—The first organized unofficial campaign to fight the high cost of living in Paris has resulted in price cuts varying from 30 to 50 per cent, it was claimed today by leaders of the movement.

Consumers' leagues were formed in various parts of the city and "patrol committees" were sent out to inspect the price tickets of all commodities. The movement is spreading and the syndicalists in provincial towns are taking measures of their own to reduce the cost of foodstuffs.

The "patrol committees" in Paris are assisting the police to enforce the laws compelling shopkeepers to post a list of prices, but the work has been carried out in orderly fashion without any disturbances. The committee notes the lowest prices for each commodity in a given section and then "peacefully persuade" shopkeepers who have been selling at higher prices to cut their figures.

Trade unions are taking a leading part in the campaign.

SUNBEAM CAR IN LABOR DAY RACE

Famous English Automobile Racing Corporation to Enter 225-Mile Race Labor Day.

Uniontown, Pa., August 5.—Information reaching the management of the Uniontown Speedway is to the effect that the Sunbeam company, famous English automobile racing corporation, will have at least one car entered in the big 225 mile automobile speed event at Uniontown on Labor day. No information is available as yet as to the pilot of the car, but the promised entry of the foreign racing creation has added much interest to the biggest automobile race ever staged in the United States outside of Indianapolis.

The Sunbeam cars were entered at Indianapolis, but were forced out because of failure to meet the racing specifications there. This trouble, however, has been corrected and it is declared that the Sunbeam cars are faster than ever.

It is also semi-officially announced that the speedy eight cylinder Deussenbergs will be back in Uniontown for the Labor day race. Thomas Milton, young pilot of the Deussenberg, established a new record for the Uniontown track by winning the mid-summer events, clearly outdistancing the field. He also won the grand opening event in May and the Deussenberg forces are making every effort to win the three races at Uniontown this season, a record, if accomplished, which will stand in automobile racing history as something never before accomplished in the same season. There are three of these new Deussenberg cars, all of which were entered in the mid-summer events at Uniontown. The other two cars were piloted by Dave Lewis and Eddie O'Donnell and the supposition is that Milton O'Donnell and Lewis will wear the Deussenberg colors at the Labor day event.

CRAVATH'S INITIAL DEAL IS HUMMER

Lee Meadows.

The first baseball deal in which Cravath participated as manager of the turbulent Phillies surely was a good one. He surprised the baseball public by getting Pitcher Lee Meadows from the Cardinals. The Cards had hung onto Meadows like a dog to his pet bone ever since they gobbled him out early in the 1915 season. Last winter half a dozen club owners went to the major league meetings loaded to the guards with coin and surplus players in an effort to buy, beg or steal Lee, but he was put in the Card vault for safekeeping until the meeting had adjourned.

Now, without much fanfare, Cravath pulls the right string and out hops Lee from the bag.

This is the second baseball sensation which the pitcher with the spectacles has created in big league baseball. The first one was caused when he made his debut in the majors. He was then and still is—ladies and gentlemen—the only man in the big leagues today who wears spectacles on and off the field.

A scout for the Cardinals saw Meadows in action with the Oxford club in the North Carolina league. That was a Class D outfit. The players taken direct from clubs of that class to the majors and retained in the big show for any length of time are very few in number. A one-armed man could keep track of them on his fingers. When the St. Louis scribes and the other key whackers around the circuits heard that the Cards' latest find from those distant parts had to wear glasses on the field of combat they laughed.

"Poor old Miller Huggins must be batty," they said.

But Meadows not only came and saw the National league back in that season of 1915, but he led the pitchers of the whole durned circuit until the latter part of the season. Critics were unanimous in giving him credit for being the best who put and kept the Cardinals in the National league scramble for a while that year.

Meadows, in the seasons since he made his bow, hasn't set the world on fire, but he has been a good pitcher, at least. He has been a thankless job—trying to pitch winning ball with a losing club every season.

Here is his won and lost record up to this year, with the corresponding percentage of his club:

| Year | Won | Lost | Pct. | Club |
|------|-----|------|------|------|
| 1915 | 13 | 11 | .541 | 471 |
| 1916 | 12 | 23 | .343 | 399 |
| 1917 | 15 | 9 | .625 | 539 |
| 1918 | 8 | 14 | .364 | 385 |

He had won his share of the Cards' victories this season. The team had been running along at the tail end, despite this Meadows won six games while losing ten.

If Cravath gets the Phils around into shape and starts them on a winning streak Meadows may prove conclusively that he has been deserving of more fame than he has reaped to date—spectacles and all.

SENSATION IN THE GAME

Here's Story of How Spectacle-Wearer Broke Into League.

By N. E. BROWN.

The first big baseball deal to which Gravy Cravath was a party as manager of the turbulent Phillies surely was a good one. He surprised the baseball public by getting Pitcher Lee Meadows from the Cardinals. The Cards had hung onto Meadows like a dog to his pet bone ever since they gobbled him out early in the 1915 season. TAGGING THE BASES

The Reds gained a full game on the Glants Tuesday.

Jimmy Ring, Brooklyn boy, gave the Dodgers but six hits.

Roger Hornsby and company took the Glants' measure for a fine trimming and delivered it the same day. New York couldn't solve Jake May's slow ball delivery.

Waite Hoyt, 19, won his second game for the Red Sox in as many starts by getting credit for a victory over Cleveland.

Davey Robertson got into his first game with the Cubs but his presence failed to bring Mitchell's men luck. Rudolph gave the Cubs but one run.

The Phillies are pulling further away from the cellar. Lee Meadows pitched another victory for them at Pittsburgh, shutting them out with five hits.

Bernie Boland and Walter Johnson staged a pitchers' battle at Washington, but a passed ball by Pichini gave Boland the advantage.

WEAVERS DENY BOOKING GAME

That no game had been scheduled between the Weaver All-Stars of this city and the Chester Athletics for Wednesday evening was the declaration made Wednesday morning by Manager "Cheese" Aldridge of the local aggregation.

"I did not arrange a game with Chester for Wednesday night," said Manager Aldridge, "and I would like to deny the statement of the Chester management to that effect."

The Chester club has arranged a game with Georgetown to be played tonight on the Rock Springs park diamond as a part of the Chester Merchants' outing at the park.

The Razor

Lincoln used

THE razor Lincoln used was not unlike the man himself—in outward form, unassuming, and yet an instrument of exquisite balance—with a time-saving length of blade, a fresh, keen-stropped edge for the work in hand and a wondrously even temper.

One pictures Lincoln as full of affection for this honest blade despite the fact that his deep-furrowed face was not the easiest to shave. The only things that Lincoln's razor really needed to lighten the patient morning task were the safety and convenience of the guarded, double-edged blade of the

A Real Razor—made Safe

The time-tested heft, the splendid temper and shape of the razor Lincoln used—but it won't cut your face. Furthermore, it's the longest, strongest, keenest, best-tempered blade on earth, with more shaving mileage than any other razor. And when this two-edged blade has dulled, keep it for sharpening in a spare moment. You can strop it—you can hone it—why throw good steel away? Seven million shavers have seen the good sense of adding all these extra advantages to the acknowledged good points of their old razor. MORAN'S TEAM MAKING STRONG BID FOR FLAG

The Hustling Red Manager and Players Are Delivering Goods.

THE CLUB IS DEVELOPED

Work of Jake Daubert is The Surprise of The Season.

Cincinnati, Aug. 6.—(Special)—With less than two months of the championship season remaining the Reds are right there in an extremely threatening position, with the likelihood of remaining in the race until the finish. Manager Moran and the players deserve great credit for the brilliant showing made. The team constantly delivered the goods.

The Reds do not look so strong on paper as at least three other clubs in the league, and possible four, but Manager Moran has succeeded in developing the latent strength of the club to its fullest powers and the consistent work of the club has been the baseball surprise of the year.

At first base Jake Daubert is an old-timer who was supposed to have outlived his best years, but who has been playing the best ball of his career. When Jake came here it was said that his legs were in bad shape, and that he would not be able to play more than half the games, but he has played in every inning of every championship contest, which no other man on the team has done, and his work has been of the greatest help to the club.

Rath Going Strong.

Morris Rath is another veteran who has played with several American league clubs and was finally rescued from the minors by the Reds, when it was thought that he was out of the big show for good. It was a grand piece of luck for the team that Lee Magee refused to report at the training camp, on account of a squabble over a bit of salary, for the action gave Rath his chance to play second base, which he would probably not have had if Magee had reported. Rath has been playing in a quiet and modest way, the best second base in the league this year. He was supposed to have a bad arm, but his throwing has been wonderfully accurate. While not a heavy hitter, he is a game man at the plate, and one of the most timely batters on the club, besides being by far the best lead-off man in the league, as he seldom hits at a bad ball and works his way to first on passes quite constantly. He is a real tower of strength.

At the short field Larry Kopf, who came here in a trade for Lee Magee, has been playing the best ball of his career and ranks with the best in the league. Charley Hollocher, the Cub sensation, is a shade faster and will hit a bit harder, but Kopf yields to no other short fielder.

Groh in Class by Himself

Of Heinie Groh nothing need be said. The Red captain is in a class by himself as a third baseman, having no weaknesses in the position, and he is one of the hardest and most reliable hitters in baseball. If the baseball field was a race track and there was a special race for third basemen Heinie would be going under the wire at a gentle canter before the rest of the bunch had hit the head of the stretch. Manager Moran said the other day that Groh has the best eye for a ball at the plate of any right-hand hitter he had ever seen in his long experience. That's long enough.

The Red outfield does not look to be in the same class with that of the Giants, but has been more than holding its own by keen determination and fighting spirit. Eddie Roush, of course, is the best center fielder in the league, and a powerful hitter who has a shade on Benny Kauff, good as the latter is. Greasy Neal is fielding sensationally this year and runs bases well, but is not so strong a hitter as Pop Young. Neale, however, is a valuable man on any club, for he is a close student of the game and a real sportsman, who plays ball with the spirit and dash of a collegian, and because he loves to win Greasy is an advanced thinker in the pastime and has pulled a number of smart plays this season successfully, most of which have been overlooked by the fans. In left field Rube Bressler, a reformed left-handed pitcher, has been of inestimable worth to the club on account of his energy, determination and natural ability.

Amnesty For Malvy.

Paris, Aug. 6.—The parliamentary amnesty committee by a vote of 7 to 2 today decided to grant amnesty to former Minister of the Interior Malvy, who had been sentenced to five years banishment by the high court for having dealings with the enemy during the war.

Boys' Director Resigns.

The resignation of Daniel K. Penny, boys' director at the Y. M. C. A., to become effective Sept. 5, was announced Tuesday night by Secretary E. K. Bennett.

Penny accepted the position of head of the boys' division at the association here several months ago shortly after his discharge from the navy. He was city chairman of the Boy Scout week drive in this city a short time ago and has been active in Boy Scout activities.

MORAN DEVELOPS LATENT STRENGTH OF CINCINNATI CLUB; REDS ARE LIKELY TO REMAIN IN RACE UNTIL THE FINISH

With less than two months of the championship season remaining, the Cincinnati Reds are right there in an extremely threatening position, with the likelihood of remaining in the race until the finish. The team has been the sensation of the season, and whether it beats out the Giants or not, both Manager Moran and the players deserve great credit for the showing made. The team has made a long, steady and courageous battle, and has had no serious slump at any time.

NORMAN ROSS, SWIMMER, TIPS SCALE AT 200

Despite Avoirdupois, He Stands Forth as a Star in The Pool.

WINS HONORS ABROAD

Defeats Foreign Stars in The Inter-Allied Meet In France.

New York, Aug. 6.—Norman Ross stands forth among the many great swimmers of the present day because of his versatility.

He is a particularly brilliant star among stars who have been developed in all parts of the world and he is being talked about throughout the States and in Europe today because of his recent achievements in the Inter-Allied tournament in France, where he won aquatic honors for the United States from the teams of other nations practically single-handed.

Many foreign swimmers, some of international reputation, among whom were Hardwick and Longworth, the great Australian record makers, competed in the Inter-Allied swimming events. Ross won over this great collection of "human fish," taking the 100, 400, 800 and 1,500-metre events free style swimming, and the 100-metre back-stroke event. These victories established beyond a doubt this wonderful versatility and surprising stamina, and offered an unparalleled range of victories for rival swimmers to shoot at.

Ross first attracted nation-wide attention while swimming as a member of the Stanford University team. He set his first world's record, officially, in 1916, when he swam the 220-yard event in the 100-foot pool at the Olympic club, San Francisco, in 2 minutes 21.35 seconds. This record still remains unbeaten. Since that time Ross has set records of wide range. His performances have been increasingly brilliant from year to year and his feats in the Inter-Allied games came as a crowning achievement.

Ross will be seen in swimming meets throughout the East and Middle West during the present Summer, according to present plans, and he will be a monster attraction wherever he goes. He is a giant in size, standing

DRY VICTORY IS PREDICTED

Direct comparison with the spirit of rebellion which brought on the Civil war is made in a comment on the wet referendums by J. A. White, state superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league.

Immediately following the filing of the petitions Mr. White said:

"The filing by the wets of two petitions, one to repeal prohibition and reinstate license, and the other to define intoxicating liquor to mean a beverage containing more than 2.75 per cent alcohol; after national prohibition has been written into the federal constitution by 45 states, is as clear an effort to revive the old question of states' rights and thereby nullify federal law as was ever attempted in this country. That question was settled at a tremendous sacrifice from '61 to '65. However, when you know that brewers of the country, including those in Ohio, paid enormous sums of money into the disloyal German-American Alliance to handicap America in the world war, you are not surprised at this attempted nullification.

"The voters of Ohio will defeat both proposals by overwhelming majorities."

Chautauqua City Park.

The Victory Chautauqua of the Colt-Aber service, August 12 to 18, will be held on the city park grounds, West Fifth street, it was definitely decided Tuesday night. Some question as to a suitable site for the big chautauqua tent had arisen and the matter was left to the decision of Mr.

Arnold, advance agent of the chautauqua, who is in the city.

In all except Morrow and Columbiana counties more than Early American Newspapers.

The first newspaper published in America made its appearance in Boston on September 25, 1689, and was called Publick Occurrences. It was intended as a monthly, but had only one issue, as it was immediately suppressed by the government for political reasons. The Boston News-Letter was the first permanent newspaper in this country, and usually receives credit for being the pioneer, as it was the first that survived. This initial number appeared on April 20, 1704, and its publication was continued for 72 years.

MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monyhan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, sometimes I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONYHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

GRASSHOPPERS DAMAGE CROPS

Farmers from nearby districts are complaining about the worst grasshopper epidemic of recent years. It is said that the pests are in some cases destroying entire crops and about 50 per cent of others.

Frank Anderson, of the Anderson farm, Ohioville road, stated Tuesday that the grasshoppers had destroyed about 300 bushels of his oat crop. The rest of it is being cut as rapidly as possible in order to save it from the insects.

Mr. Lyons, owner of a farm between Calcutta and Long's Run, says the pests have completely destroyed his onion and carrot patches.

Automobiles driving in the country say that millions of the pests are seen swarming along the roads.

MAY ALLISON

"ALMOST MARRIED"

The play tells the romance of a girl who leaves her alpine home to come to America and win fame and fortune with her voice. Before she left the mountains, however, she met and fell in love with a young millionaire who, though loving her, basely deserted her. On becoming the leading favorite of a famous New York review she meets the father of the young man and between them they concoct a plan which brings the delinquent youth to his knees. The complications which ensue make a play of rare originality replete with incidents of love, adventure and humor. It is a splendid play for Miss Allison.
